U04E0202	Business Correspondence	ZK	3	The aim of the course to help students write better emails in English as emails are the most common form of written communication. It is aimed at intermediate or upper-intermediate level, and consists of sessions of language practice covering a wide range of business topics. It includes exercises on email style, but also practices more conventional language areas, such as fixed expressions, sentence structures, linking words, prepositions, verb tenses, and punctuation etc. It will help students to write effective emails, express themselves clearly, and their writing will be easier to understand. The course also uncovers cultural differences in Czech and English business communication
U16E0101	Corporate Social Responsibility	Z,ZK	6	The subject deals with corporate social responsibility (CSR). The CSR concept builds on the principle 3P: people-planet-profit. The course focuses on an explanation of the theoretical background of this concept, the interpretation of documents regulating corporate social, economic and environmental activities, and non-financial reporting standards. It includes a link between the CSR concept with corporate processes, especially business strategy, HRM, marketing, and PR. Illustrations of various CSR strategies and practices cover case studies of projects designed abroad, and in Czech conditions.
U04E0204	Critical Thinking	ZK	3	The primary objective of the course is to become familiar with the essentials of correct argumentation and to improve students' analytical and problem-solving skills. Through the discussion and practical use of advanced methods of argumentation, the course develops students' understanding of the essential principles involved in the practice of reasoned decision-making with the emphasis on their practical application in case studies discussing recent socioeconomic and political issues. The writing and language skills developed in this course might be used across the curriculum.
U16E0102	Cross-Cultural Management	Z,ZK	6	Managing cultural diversity is crucial in today's globalized world and doing business across countries. Cross culture is the interaction of people from different backgrounds in the business world. Knowledge of cross-cultural differences and their practical use increases the efficiency of interaction between representatives of different national cultures and could be considered one of the core competencies of a successful manager in the global environment. The course is open to students of all majors looking for deeper knowledge about how culture shapes management practices in international companies as well as the cultural orientations of individual managers and organization members.
U88E0101	Current Issues in Business from a V4 Perspective	KZ	6	The course, organized in five full-day lectures involving an international group of guest lecturers and supported by the Visegrad Funds, will take a multidisciplinary approach, introducing and developing particular advanced topics relevant for business. This will be addressed from a Central-European view-point, providing students with international as well as regional-specific insights.
U63E0101	Introduction to Game Theory	KZ	3
U04E0201	Networking in English	ZK	3	Focusing on the practical communicative needs of the students, the aim of the course is to acquire and systematically develop language skills and strategies of effective and appropriate business communication, interaction and behaviour in typical networking situations (personal branding, creation and management of a network of business contacts with people who might help with extension and development of business opportunities) through language analysis, role-plays and practice situations, vocabulary and grammar development, teamwork, and individual feedback. Practical language skills will be systematically developed in contexts and situations relevant to professional work.
U04E0203	Presentation Skills	ZK	3	Students will adopt main rules of verbal, nonverbal and para-verbal (voice) communication and principles of presentation and communication strategies in English. Students will develop their own presentation skills in practical exercises. They will get feedback in a form of self-evaluation, "peer-review" and lecturer comments. The course is aimed at intermediate and upper-intermediate level.
U16E0501	Talent Management	Z,ZK	6	The course is aimed at practical application of knowledge and basic skills of Talent Management as well as the development of personal competencies of each student in order to improve individual self-presentation and to succeed during the Recruiting Process and Employee / Employer Selection process.
